Dear WiMAX Community,

During the month of November the WiMAX Forum held two significant events.

On November 6th, 2012, the WiMAX Forum hosted its first WiMAX Oil & Gas Event. It was held immediately before OilComm 2012 at the Marriott Westchase in Houston, Texas. WiMAX Oil & Gas 2012 focused specifically on supporting the Oil & Gas community in deploying effective and affordable WiMAX networks to support their communication initiatives. The event featured high-level speakers from across the WiMAX ecosystem with real world case studies from GE Digital Energy, Johnston Technical Services, Marathon Oil and Redline Communications.

The WiMAX Oil & Gas 2012 Event drew more than 100 attendees from around the world including attendees from Oil & Gas companies, operators, vendors and service providers to discuss the opportunities for WiMAX in the Oil & Gas field market. The event was a major success, and the reactions from attendees were overwhelmingly positive.

The event program focused on the continuing opportunity for WiMAX technology in Africa, a region with low broadband penetration, inadequate wireline infrastructure, and incredible demand for broadband services.

The event drew WiMAX operators from across the continent to discuss their success and challenges, and featured presentations from Busy Internet, CelPlan Technologies, Hitachi and Microteck. The event was successful, and reactions from attendees were again very positive.

The WiMAX Forum would like to thank the following companies for providing speakers for this event:
